The demand for Richey's pills constantly increases.

Rowe wants your wool, and wants it badly.

A lot of handsome gingham just received at Anderson's Bazaar.

Go to Thomas & Kimbley's for Richey's pills.

Carload of line at Rowe's New Store. Call and buy all you want.

Ladies! Oxford ties, the latest shoe out, just received at Anderson's Bazaar.

Thomas & Kimbley keep Richey's pills.

Bring on your produce, if Mr. Ed can wait on you we will employ other clerks.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, Thursday June 1st, 1882, Milton A. Barnard to Miss Isabella Gibson.

Highest price paid for wool and all kinds of country produce, at Rogers & King's, Buford Ky.

Other merchants will puff and swell.

While Rogers & King will buy and sell.

R. P. Rowe buys his furniture by the carload, and has it shipped the same way, therefore he can sell it cheaper than any one else.

Some heartless fiend shot a mule belonging to Joe Park, a few nights ago killing it. It was a good mule, was running out in the columns harming no one. The shooter should be shot through a course of severe punishment.

A Democratic mass meeting has been called to meet at the court-house Saturday, June 24th, to select delegates to the Hopkinsville convention which meets June 30th, to nominate a candidate for Superior Court Judge.

Thanks to Mrs. W. B. Hayward for a basket of strawberries. Some people say they have a sweet tooth but we have a strawberry tooth, which was amply satisfied by these delicious berries.

Probably more of the Oliver Chilled Plows are sold than any other three kinds manufactured in the United States. Why? Simply because they are the best. Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro. have them for sale. They are also the cheapest plows.

To insure perfect safety while driving a wild horse, call on Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro. and get a patent buggy singletree. If your horse runs or becomes frightened, you can detach him on an instant and thus be at perfect safety. Price, $13.00 or $15.00 adjusted to your buggy.

A foot race was run at Beaver Dam last Monday, between Charles Parrott and Wash Rander. Rander won by two lengths and a neck, and Parrott was beaten by about the same distance. Several other races were run, and a good deal of fun was had all around.

Both Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier are prepared at 233 and 235 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass. Price of either, $1. Six bottles for $5. Sent by mail in the form of pills, or of lozenges, on receipt of price, $1 per box for either. Mrs. Pinkham freely answers all letters of inquiry. Enclose 3c. stamp. Send for pamphlet. Mention this paper.

Anderson's Bazaar is now having its own jeans manufactured, and is still short two thousand pounds of the necessary amount of wool needed to manufacture the goods required for the fall and winter sales. Parties having nice clothing wool for sale, might get very full prices by seeing the proprietor at once. There is some very fine clothing wool raised in Ohio county which ought to bring good prices from home manufacturers.

On Saturday night a fire occurred at Echols, by which the McHenry Rockport Coal Co., have sustained a serious loss. The Tip House, air shaft, and the timbers living the main shaft, together with the hoisting machinery were all totally destroyed. Mr. McHenry says the loss is from $3000 to $5000, with no insurance. These works were all new and in complete order. The company started energetically to work on Monday morning, and will have everything all right in a short time.

Mr. Alexander Grunwell, of Albany, N. Y., says: "I had been for years troubled with great weakness of my digestive organs, which seemed to be always out of fix. Most usually I suffered from constipation, and at other times a severe running-off at the bowels would set in. No remedy I ever tried would regulate this function until I tried Brown's Iron Bitters. It really benefited me from the first day I used it. My habits are now perfectly regular, and as a strengthener of the digestive organs, I think Brown's Iron Bitters worth its weight in diamonds."

Call at Thomas Brothers, and buy one of those cheap saddles.

James A. Rowe has rented Crow's livery stable and will begin business at once.

A pleasant thing for summer is one of those cots at Rowe's. They are very cheap.

Rowe wants all your spring chickens and fat hens, for which he will pay the highest price.

The Herald is surely appreciated. The actual net increase in its circulation since May 10th, 1882, is 399.

The low prices at Rogers & King's is winning. They are making orders every day or two. Small profits.

Another big lot of those good shoes at one dollar and fifteen cents just received at Anderson's Bazaar.

We will pay the top of the market for wool.

Good cottonade worth twenty-five cents, is offered for seventeen and a half cents a yard at Anderson's Bazaar.

Born, to the wife of J. A. Tichenor, of Point Pleasant neighborhood, May 28, 1882—a daughter.

Work on Mr. W. T. King's residence on Market street is progressing rapidly and it will be ready for occupation in a short time.

J. R. Grant, of Hopkinsville, Ky., was found dead in bed, at the Hotel Emory, Cincinnati, Ohio, last Wednesday. Supposed to have died of congestion.

Rowe's New Store will receive nearly a car load of the Davis Sewing machines this week. The Davis is taking the lead in this country.

To-morrow night the young ladies' A. B. G. society give their entertainment, and the next day Anderson's Bazaar will offer a fine line of new goods at astonishingly low figures.

Mr. Harvey Condit who has been ill for several weeks with malaria fever, is slowly recovering. His many friends will be glad to hear he is once more on the road to health.

For all pulmonary, urinary and digestive diseases, and affections of the heart and brain, use Brown's Iron Bitters. It strengthens every part, and cures by its soothing and refreshing effect.

A daughter of Geo. C. Pirtle, near Cromwell, three and one-half years old, has been going to school twelve days and has already learned the alphabet and is spelling.

Thomas Bro's have accepted the agency of the McCormick Reaper and Mower. Farmers wanting to purchase this season would do well to call and examine these machines before buying elsewhere.

Having used T. E. Richey's pills I endorse them as a sure cure, and mild and pleasant.

A. M. ALLENBROOK, M. D.

Rev. J. H. Spurlin, Lamasco, Ky., writes: That chills have begun and people are calling for T. E. Richey's pills on every side, as they find them the best remedy they can get.

A few more such juries as we had last week, and crime would soon be suppressed in Ohio county. Those juries are good men—they buy their goods at Anderson's Bazaar, which shows that they are also men of wisdom.

Strayed, from near Pleasant Hill church, about two weeks ago, one light bay filly, and one dark bay horse two years old each. A satisfactory reward will be paid for any information concerning their whereabouts abouts.

J. Y. TURNER, Livermore, Ky.

Mr. Jerry Williams, while handling a piece of ice weighing some two hundred pounds last Thursday evening, let it fall on his foot. A severe bruise was the result, but no bones were broken.

Thousands of ladies have found sudden relief from all their woes by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the great remedy for diseases peculiar to females. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

Married, in the court-house, in Hartford, Kentucky, Thursday, June 1, 1882, by Judge Ben Newton, Mr. M. B. House and Miss M. E. Otto.

Now that Miss Otto has a house A happy home should be her motto, and she will have it if her spouse Performs his part as husband Otto.

Bright's disease of the kidneys, diabetes and other diseases of the kidneys and liver, which you are being so frightened about, Hop Bitters is the only thing that will surely and permanently prevent and cure. All other pretended cures only relieve for a time and then make you many times worse.

By a typographical error in the Herald last week it was made to appear that Messrs John R. and Wm. Phillips were selling corn meal at $1.30 per bushel, when it should have been $1.10. You can always get meal and flour at their mills at the lowest price whether the types tell the truth or not.

The public has long since awarded to Ayer's Hair Vigor the foremost place among reliable Hair Restoratives. It is effective, agreeable and absolutely harmless. It makes the hair fresh and luxuriant, and old age scarce and unobtainable.

At Tim Flanagan's ball Miss O'Rourke, with light heart and twinkling feet "danced to the man with the goose on his button," because Cousin's Lightning Liniment, the great pain killer, had cured her rheumatism. You can buy a bottle of the regular size for 50c, or a sample bottle for 25c.

Parties intending to purchase Reapers, Mowing Machines and Hay-rakes will do well to see me before buying.

DAN F. TRACY.

Sweet Breath and Good Digestion.

The breath sweetened, food removed, food thoroughly digested, good health permanently maintained, by using Brown's Iron Bitters. A true strengthener; a sure reviver.

Rockport News.

May 27th, 1882.

We had quite a lively picnic Saturday in Beech Grove. Six or eight attended.

Miss Lennie Duke is visiting her brother in Evansville, Ind.

Miss Georgia Brownfield of Delaware, is visiting John Benton and wife.

Miss Eddie Narrow an accomplished young lady of Russellville, is visiting Mr. Gas Bentley and wife.

Mr. Sutton Reid is happy—it was a boy.

Mrs. S. A. Jackson and daughters are visiting the Mammoth Cave.

Our promising operator has been visiting Ma G. T. Oliver at Caneyville.

Town flooded with drummers.

River is falling. It gave quite a relief to some of the river farmers.

The packet is making regular trips now.

Revs. D. J. K. Maddox and J. T. Caselder, have returned from Hopkinsville.

Yours as ever, RAS.

Morganfield Sayings.

May 29th, 1882.

Rain, army worn and cold weather.

Currier Bro's, the churn men, have left this place, leaving the churn business to agents.

The lightning rod man, Swift, is still here.

The Singer Sewing Machine man, Lloyd, is always busy.

Two new horse doctors have just been set up here, the McCormick and Deering. The Deering is taking the lead.

The marshal has been working the prisoners on the street. We have 18 prisoners now.

Joe K. Smith, who is clerking for G. M. Rowe, has found him a new "sweet-heart" down here. He says he likes Union pretty well.

A. W. Mason has torn down the grocery recently occupied by Jas. L. Ford, and is building a dry goods store on the same spot.

Prof. Breunke, of Evansville, is giving dancing lessons at the city hall in this place. He has 36 scholars, at $7 per scholar, 12 lessons.

Judge Williams, of Owensboro, candidate for Judge of Superior Court is here visiting Jessie S. Taylor and family.

J. W. Garr with Marcus & Co. and S. Feilheimer & Co., Cincinnati, are visiting parents here.

Everybody is against Henry for Clerk since the newspapers are getting so hard on him.

Oxon.

Give us a Word.

The following from the Elkton Register asks a question, that Captain Henry himself answered by admitting that the combination was made, and that the amount instead of $1,000 was $5,000. The "stick to the nominee-right-or-wrong-Thomas-Jefferson-Henry-never-flicker-Democratic-papers," are silent on one question. We refer to the "combination," so called, by which he changed to secure the nomination.

While the aforesaid "good and true Democratic editors" are hurling their anathemas at the advocates of decency in a candidate, and honor in the party, would it not be well for them to ventilate the rumor that two men were paid a yearly stipend of about $1,000 for their votes or their influence. The people would like to know if the convention lately assembled to select a candidate for clerk of the Court of Appeals, actually put the office up to the highest bidder and knocked it off to Tom Henry as the most liberal offer. The voters would be pleased also to know if "Combination" took within its periphery the coming gubernatorial race. They would be gratified to learn whether the debate about which our brother west of us wrote so eloquently, and which would have done credit to the orators of Dionysius or the bachelors of the carnival of hoodlums, was a part of the contract.

May 23rd, 1882.

News scarce this week.

The recent heavy rains have materially interfered with farming operations. Corn that is up is looking badly; wheat looks well; but little tobacco planted—some ground ready, but plants are scarce that are large enough to set out or transplant.

We can report quite an enjoyable affair at the house of Dr. B. F. Mitchell on the evening of the 19th inst. It was a birthday reception given by Mrs. Mitchell. Many of us would be glad to know that she would live to see many birthdays, more especially if she continues at their coming to give us superb suppers as she did on that occasion. A great many of her friends presented her with presents suitable to the occasion. Modestly beautiful flowers.

One present we must particularly mention, presented by the Misses Katie and Minnie Keen. By some oversight they were overlooked by the presenters, but when the presents were opened the most appropriate of all was that from those young ladies, consisting of a pair of beautiful vases, accompanied by a note couched in the most elegant language, showing their good taste and culture. In the galaxy of beauty we noticed the blooming faces of the Misses Mattie, Nannie and Sarah Whittier, Emma Smith, Mary Matthews, Jennie Askin, Lillie F. Cooper and others too tedious to mention. Of the young gentlemen assembled we noticed the smiling faces of our two handsome clerks, Messrs. John and Henry Strove, together with Joseph Cooper, Clifton Holden, C. M. and Remus Smith, W. T. Keown, Willie Ford, Johnnie Miles, Johnnie Withers, Eddie Quisenberry and others. In the crowd were two descendants of Esau—plus, but being rather out of date and just a little out of place they did not seem to enjoy the affair only at the supper table, but here they made themselves conspicuous as well as ornamental. Upon the whole it was a pleasant entertainment and reflected credit upon Mrs. Mitchell, who superintended, and her three daughters, Miss Nannie and Miss Bettie as well as little Ruth, who assisted. May they live long and enjoy many happy birthdays is the wish of their friend.

Shameful Democratic Reality.

The Henry organs continue to bra-assert that the exposure of their chief's moral delinquencies was a Republican scheme to destroy his character. An assertion more devoid of truth, never before appeared in print. His disgraceful conduct was the talk of the town for a week before the Commercial alluded to it, and then its article of exposure consisted of interviews with and revelations by Messrs. Lee Chambers, a city official of Louisville and a life-long Democrat, Ben F. Karsner, a prominent merchant and a life-long Democrat, and W. D. King a reputable hotel clerk and a life-long Democrat, three gentlemen whose character the Courier-Journal avouched as unimpeachable. Thus, instead of its being a Republican scheme to destroy Henry, the charges are from unimpeachable Democrats. Henry's own indefensible conduct forged and sharpened the weapon that will destroy him. Unfortunately that conduct was a shameful Democratic reality, and not a Republican lie.—Breckenridge News.

Gasburg Items.

May 27th, 1881.

The farmers are getting along exceedingly well with their work, considering the rainy weather we are having. Most of them are done replanting, and planting their corn the first time. Some are planting their tobacco ground in corn, on account of the scarcity of plants.

Crops look well, especially the wheat and oats which bids fair to be the best crop raised in this section for years.

Miss Lucy Miller who has been visiting friends in Hartford for a few weeks past, returned home Saturday.

Mr. Robert Taylor, Sr., of Kansas, is visiting relatives in the Borg.

My advice to the peddler who sold these table linens to the young ladies is to never go back to them diggings any more.

Our little town was wild with excitement on the night of the 24th, occasioned by a sermon preached in the blacksmith shop of Messrs. Swain & Hunley, by a Mormon priest, who in an able and eloquent manner set Mormonism with all its heinousness upon the spot. Whereupon Messrs. A. W. Taylor, Melvin Taylor and T. H. Baldwin, arose in response to him denouncing him as a man of false and corrupt principles, and doctrines which raised the ire of some of the boys, and Messrs. D. C. Hunley, E. P. Neal, Jas. Berryman and Ben Reid, arose in favor of Mr. Mormon, and amid general confusion the meeting was adjourned until next Thursday night, when they will all meet, and I trust give the subject a proper airing.

THE APPOINTMENT OF Magistrate Gowen as postmaster, at Hopkinsville, and throwing out of employment a worthy widow lady who lost a son in the government service a few months ago, is a specimen of civil service reform that is anything but refreshing. In a nutshell, Gowen is Walter Evans' father-in-law; Evans is a Stalwart; Arthur, whom Gowen made President, is a Stalwart; the widow Burbridge is not a Stalwart, and Evans went to Washington and laid these things before the President and off went Mrs. Burbridge's head.—Owensboro Messenger.
